In Case You Missed It

Sally McKenzie Named Partner!

We are pleased to announce that Sally McKenzie has been named a partner of Hickok & Boardman Financial Planning & HR Intelligence. A graduate of Louisiana State University, Sally has been with H&B since 1999 and in that time has had increasingly responsible roles while always demonstrating an unwavering commitment to her clients, our firm and the Vermont community. In her tenure with our firm, Sally's breadth of knowledge and experience has expanded beyond benefits allowing her to support her clients' needs in the areas of compliance, wellness and voluntary benefits. She is a leader in the employee benefits industry and a role model to others in her service to clients.

HR Compliance & Payroll Services

Penalties! Penalties! The IRS is Now Sending ACA Penalty Letters!

On November 2nd the IRS issued updated Q&A's 55-58 with information on the ESR reporting, indicating by the end of 2017, they would begin sending letters to employers on their potential liabilities. The determination will be based on the information that employers reported on the 1095C and 1094C forms, and on the employee's individual tax return.

HR Technology

The Great Divide

The kind of technology your organization uses can say a lot about your company. From one viewpoint, it may be more cost-effective not to purchase the latest and greatest, but it's worthwhile to ponder what alternate message that might send, both internally and externally.
